

Turtle Island Native American Association

6th Annual Noccoalula Falls

POWWOW

200
ALABAMA
BICENTENNIAL

1500 Noccoalula Road, Gadsden, AL

Oct 19th—Oct 20th

In Honor of Alabama's Bicentennial

Victoria Matheny will sing the National Anthem, the State Song of Alabama in English and Amazing Grace in Cherokee

Miss Indian Alabama
Emily Fayard

This young lady represents the State of Alabama Native American Population

CHARLIE MATO-TOYELA
Premier Flute Music
and Flute Maker. His Flutes are World played/known.

AZTEC DANCERS

Appearance in their Beautiful Regalia and their Traditional and very Entertaining Performance.

ALL DANCERS
WELCOME

JOHN LONEEAGLE and BAND
Contemporary Native American music at its finest

CABOT BARDEN

Author, Songwriter and Musician. Author of several books on the Native Americans. Sunday Only.

Come and enjoy the songs of our ancestors.

Special events for the children!

Fun for the family!

All Drums Welcome! SEATING PROVIDED

MC = Richard 'Sky Bear' Smith, AD = Bob Upton, DRUM = Thunderheart Singers Head Man = Johnny Rains, Head Lady = Cricket Waddell, Gate = David Lankford

NATIVE AMERICAN CRAFT VENDORS

 Fry Bread (the BEST) by Lacy's, Brisket and Burgers By Dockery, BBQ by Moon **

Learn Archery, Flint Knapping, ATL-ATL Throw, Flute Making

Additional Info. (256) 293-6464

Adults $5.00, 6-14 and 65 or older $3.00, Family $10.00

Military/First Responders w/ID Free, Donations Accepted

No Drugs, Alcohol, Politics or Open Carry