

LEARNERS WEEKEND

Saturday July 20th 10 am-4pm

& Sunday July 21st 10am-noon 2019

Come Learn Native American ways
And Have Fun!!!

Participate in Native Teachings,
Crafts, games and much more.

Open to the Public and for all ages

Tentative Class List

Learn to make: Wajopi, a craft like Beginner Finger Weaving, Ankle Bells, and Leather Bracelets, Dream Catchers, Dance Whistles, and Much more.

Listen to: Grandfather or Grandmother Readings, Powwow Etiquette, watch Beading Demonstration, Shawl Making, Drum Building, Grandfathers Talking Stick, to name a few.

Try, Fire Starting with flint & steel, Animal Tracking and Identification, a Scavenger Hunt, Native Dance, Native Blow Darts, Corn Cob Darts, Tomahawks Throw, Flint Knapping, as well as many other activities.

There will be lots to see and do!

Visit for the day or stay the weekend in a very relaxing outdoor environment.

Traders, Drums & Dancers are all welcome!

For More information Please Contact Deb @ 603-723-4982

There will be food for purchase at the Snack Shack, as well as vendors with native items for sale.

Admission is Free to all

@ Dulac Land Trust
117 Osgood RD,
Sanbornton NH 03269

Directions: From Interstate 93: Take exit 22; drive south towards Franklin (Rt. 127/ New Hampton Rd.) for 1.5 miles. Turn RIGHT onto Prescott Rd. and take the immediate Left onto Weeks Rd. for 1.2 miles. Continue onto Osgood RD. The Entrance will be on your right. Look for big green mailbox.

Non-Members please join us and Camp for the weekend for just a $10.00 Donation per Family (Family is 2 adults + minor children)
Sites are limited